The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is looking for your feedback in its effort to improve the ways it provides benefits and services to its customers.

OPM invites you as NARFE members, and those in your federal networks, to participate in *a 5- to 10-minute online survey *- in the form of a digital card-sorting exercise - about how you would organize OPM's benefits and services into different categories.

*Take the survey here

<<https://www.votervoice.net/BroadcastLinks/FHbxXZLpkcMQXKaLS0pgLA>>. Please note survey ends at close of business this Friday, April 24.*

This survey is for:

- Current federal employees
- Prospective federal employees
- Federal retirees

Please forward this email to anyone in your personal or professional networks who are prospective federal employees, current federal employees, or current federal retirees.

Thanks so much, and be well.
